Fund Payment Notice

Date of Distribution 8th December 2016

Paradice Micro Investment Fund

Notice for the purposes of subsection 12-395(2) of Subdivision 12-H of Schedule 1 of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 ("TAA 1953")

A Managed Investment Trust ("MIT") that makes a "fund payment" must give to the recipient of the fund payment a notice to enable the recipient to fulfil its withholding tax obligations under Subdivision 12-H where relevant.

The details noted below constitute a Notice in accordance with subsection 12-395(2) of Schedule 1 of the TAA 1953. Please note that this notice is for withholding tax purposes only, and does not constitute a tax statement for purposes of enabling investors to prepare their income tax returns - such statement will be provided separately to investors at the end of the income year.

In particular:

1. The part of the total payment received ("the fund payment") from which an amount would have been required to be withheld if it were paid directly to an entity covered by section 12-410 of the TAA 1953 (broadly, where the address or place of payment is outside Australia) is listed below.
2. The income year of the trust (being a MIT) to which the fund payment relates is the year ended 30 June 2017.
